Hey there, I'm Guhan! I'm currently on a journey to earn my B.Tech degree.

Alongside my academic pursuits, I've developed a deep passion for technology and the arts. As a full-stack developer, I have a solid foundation in creating dynamic web applications.

My true creative outlets lie in video editing and photography, where I tell compelling visual stories through the lens,capturing moments that speak volumes. My video editing skills allow me to weave these moments into captivating narratives, ensuring each frame is meaningful and visually stunning.

Recruiter tip: write 400-600 characters to increase interview chances
